Audio Script

NARRATOR: Look at the picture. Listen and look.

There is one example.

BOY: Look, here's a picture of Boris, Victoria and Natalia.

They're hiking in the woods.

GIRL: Oh, cool. Are you going to color it?

BOY: Yes, but I can't remember what color some of the things were.

GIRL: I think the map was yellow.

BOY: Oh, okay. I'll color it yellow, then.

NARRATOR: Can you see the map in yellow? This is an example. Now you listen and color and write.

NARRATOR: One.

BOY: Wasn't the compass blue?

GIRL: No, I think it was green. You should color it green.

BOY: Okay.

NARRATOR: Two.

BOY: You know? Boris is really cool. I'm going to write his name on his T-shirt.

GIRL: That's a good idea. But it's spelled with an O. It's B-O-R-I-S.

BOY: Hmm. B-O-R-I-S.

GIRL: Cool!

NARRATOR: Three.

GIRL: Are you going to color the clothes, too?

BOY: Definitely. I'm going to color Boris's shorts green.

NARRATOR: Four.

BOY: Okay... I want to color Natalia's shoes blue.

Which one's Natalia?

GIRL: Natalia's the tall girl on the right.

Boy: Oh, that's right. Okay, blue shoes for Natalia!

NARRATOR: Five.

BOY: And I'm going to color Victoria's purse yellow.

GIRL: Yellow? No. It should be red.

BOY: Okay, red. I'm coloring her purse red.

GIRL: That looks really nice.
