NARRATOR: One

NATALIA: What is that, Boris?

BORIS: It's a map. The instructor said we had to use a map and a compass.

NATALIA: Can I be in charge of the map?

BORIS: Sure! Victoria, do you want to be in charge of the compass?

VICTORIA: Well, I really can't read a compass.

BORIS: Okay, no problem! I'll be in charge of it.

NARRATOR: Two

NATALIA: Look! Here on the map! What does this mean, Boris?

BORIS: Let me see. It means we have to return to camp after our hike in the woods.

NATALIA: Oh, I hope we get back before it gets dark.

BORIS: And I hope we don't get lost.

NATALIA: Oh, no! I don't want to get lost either.

NARRATOR: Three

VICTORIA: Why are you scared, Natalia?

NATALIA: Well, I think... I think we are lost.

VICTORIA: No, we aren't.

NATALIA: But the sun is setting, so we must find our way back to camp before it gets dark.

VICTORIA: Now I know! You're afraid of the dark, aren't you?

NATALIA: Well, yes, I am.

NARRATOR: Four

NATALIA: Are Boris and Vince playing soccer?

VICTORIA: Yeah, and I'm sure Vince is going to score a goal. He's a good soccer player.

NATALIA: Boris is a good goalie, too. Wait! (SHOUTING:) Boris, take off your glasses before Vince kicks the ball!

VICTORIA: Okay, just speak a little louder.

BORIS: Will she understand what I say?

VICTORIA: I'm sure she will.

NARRATOR: Two

BORIS: Did you see the ball, Natalia?

NATALIA: It's behind that tree.

BORIS: I'll go get it. Vince! What are you doing here?

VINCE: I'm just...eh... enjoying the view.

BORIS: Do you want to come with us?

VINCE (RELUCTANTLY): Okay.

BORIS: Natalia is in charge of the map. Will you be in charge of the ball?

VINCE: Okay, I'll do that!

NARRATOR: Three

VINCE: Hey. What is that for? You are so nerdy!

BORIS: The instructor said we should use this compass and that map.
